Dirk Janssens @ CATM Chelsea: "Made In Wonderland" (until July 24)

If you're feeling a little blue and in desperate need of a pick-me-up, CATM Chelsea has a cure that involves neither pills nor narcotics. This unique anti-depressant comes in the form of Dirk Janssens' "Made In Wonderland" collection. Janssen accurately calls his work LoveArt. His works bestow compliments on the viewer, such as "You are made of stars!" and "If you put your mind to it, you can accomplish anything." Goths may want to stay away from this show, but if you embrace the vibe, a walk through the gallery could feel just like attending a jazzercise class led by Richard Simmons.

Lucky for the heartsick: CATM recently announced that they have extended Janssens' exhibition, due to popular demand, until July 24.
